PREAMBLE

Carrying The Message through service to the members and fellowship of Alcoholics Anonymous and to the general public are the primary purposes of the District Fifteen Service structure. In all our proceedings we shall observe the spirit of AA's Twelve Traditions, Twelve Concepts and the Six Warranties, mindful of the ideals expressed in the AA Service Manual. The Rights of Appeal, Participation, and Minority Opinion as expressed in the 12 Concepts and the AA Service Manual shall always be observed. District 15 expressly adopts and incorporates the 12 Concepts and the AA Service Manual, which shall govern the conduct of all District 15 activities, except as expressly amended herein. Reference to the AA Service Manual shall mean the most current edition, including any amendments from prior editions.

The purpose of these Guidelines is to describe the policies and procedures, which apply to the District Fifteen Committee and the conduct of its affairs. It constitutes a supplement to and not a replacement of the AA Service Manual and is intended to govern the policies and procedures to be followed in administering the affairs of the District. The Twelve Traditions

1. Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon A.A. unity.
2. For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority – a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern.
3. The only requirement for A.A. membership is a desire to stop drinking.
4. Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or A.A. as a whole.
5. Each group has but one primary purpose – to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.
6. An A.A. group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the A.A. name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property and prestige divert us from our primary purpose.
7. Every A.A. group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.
8. Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers.
9. A.A. as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.
10. Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the A.A. name ought never be drawn into public controversy.
11. Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio, and films.
12. Anonymity is the spiritual foundation

The 6 Warranties

1. The Conference shall never become the seat of perilous wealth or power.
2. Sufficient operating funds, plus an ample reserve, should be its prudent financial principle.
3. None of the conference members shall ever be placed in a position of unqualified authority over any of the others.
4. That all important decisions be reached by discussion, vote, and whenever possible, by substantial unanimity.
5. That no conference action ever be personally punitive or an incitement to public controversy.
6. That though the conference may act for the service of Alcoholics Anonymous, it shall never perform any acts of government; and that, like the Society of Alcoholics Anonymous which it serves, the conference itself will always remain democratic in action and in spirit.

The Twelve Concepts

1. Final responsibility and ultimate authority for A.A. world services should always reside in the collective conscience of our whole fellowship.
2. The General Service Conference of A.A. has become, for nearly every practical purpose, the active voice and the effective conscience of our whole Society in its world affairs.
3. To insure effective leadership, we should endow each element of A.A. – the Conference, the General Service Board and its service corporations, staffs, committees, and executives – with a traditional “Right of Decision.”
4. At all responsible levels, we ought to maintain a traditional “Right of Participation,” allowing a voting representation in reasonable proportion to the responsibility that each must discharge.
5. Throughout our structure, a traditional “Right of Appeal” ought to prevail, so that minority opinion will be heard and personal grievances receive careful consideration.
6. The Conference recognizes that the chief initiative and active responsibility in most world service matters should be exercised by the trustee members of the Conference acting as the General Service Board.
7. The Charter and Bylaws of the General Service Board are legal instruments, empowering the trustees to manage and conduct world service affairs. The Conference Charter is not a legal document; it relies upon tradition and the A.A. purse for final effectiveness.
8. The trustees are the principal planners and administrators of overall policy and finance.
9. They have custodial oversight of the separately incorporated and constantly active services, exercising this through their ability to elect all the directors of these entities.
10. Good service leadership at all levels is indispensable for our future functioning and safety. Primary world service leadership, once exercised by the founders, must necessarily be assumed by the trustees.
11. Every service responsibility should be matched by an equal service authority, with the scope of such authority well defined.
12. The trustees should always have the best possible committees, corporate service directors, executives, staffs and consultants. Composition, qualifications, induction procedures, and rights and duties will always be matters of serious concern.
13. The Conference shall observe the spirit of the A.A. tradition, taking care that it never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds and reserve be its prudent financial principle; that it place none of its members in a position of unqualified authority over others; that it reach all important decisions by discussion, vote, and, whenever possible, by substantial unanimity; that its actions never be personally punitive nor an incitement to public controversy; that it never perform acts of government, and that, like the Society it serves, it will always remain democratic in thought and action.
